Mansfield's TAG SALE TRAIL FAQ'S

What is the Tag Sale Trail?

Mansfield's Tag Sale Trail is an annual event where dozens of local families host a tag sale on the same date! Participants register to have their tag sale listed on the exclusive Tag Sale Trail map - given to hundreds of shoppers eager for a bargain. Shoppers access the map for free beginning the day prior to the event.

When can I register my tag sale?

Mansfield Residents can register their April 25th tag sale for a spot on the map or in the CC gymnasium beginning March 6th. Registrations close April 19th.

I registered for a spot in the gym; what's provided?

You will be provided a 10'x10' area in the gymnasium with one table and 2 chairs. You are welcome to bring additional tables as long as they can fit within your space. Please be prepared - you will be expected to move all of your sale items in and out independently the day of the sale.

Where can I get a map?

Maps will be available to the public for FREE beginning Friday, April 24th at 5:30 a.m. Maps can be downloaded online at www.mansfieldcc.com under "NEWS" or larger copies will be available in print at the Community Center reception desk.

I don't live in Mansfield; can I participate?

Non-residents are eligible to sell their wares from the CC gymnasium and may register beginning March 11th. And don't forget - shopping is open to everyone!

Can my groups fundraiser or neighborhood tag sale participate?

Yes. There is a separate rate for group sale participation. Group sales will be provided with two Tag Sale Trail advertising signs.

How is the Tag Sale Trail advertised?

The Tag Sale Trail is advertised through social media posts on Facebook, on Craigslist, and the Patch as well as other Tag-saling websites, and the MPRD webpage. It is also advertised in the Chronicle the weekend of the event and the weekend prior. Tag Sale Trail signs are also provided to the first 35 home-sale registrants.
